VISIT
Myrtle Beach
SOUTH CAROLINA

A LETTER FROM THE MYRTLE BEACH AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE & CONVENTION AND VISITORS BUREAU

Welcome to the Myrtle Beach area for the fourth annual Myrtle Beach Invitational.

On behalf of Visit Myrtle Beach and the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce, we're delighted to have you here as our guests and excited to once-again partner with ESPN and Coastal Carolina University to bring you competitive Division I college basketball at its finest.

Between games, be sure to explore The Beach and all there is to do here. November is the perfect time to enjoy the outdoors with a round of golf at one of our championship courses or practice your putting at one of our many mini-golf venues. Take to the water on a scenic boat cruise or deep-sea fishing adventure or explore one of our state parks or historic sites such as Brookgreen Gardens.

This time of year is also an ideal time to take in a show at one of our live entertainment theaters, find unique gifts while you cross off your holiday shopping list, and dine at one of our 2,000-plus restaurants—many of which use locally sourced seafood, including those in Murrells Inlet, the Seafood Capital of South Carolina.

Some of our holiday activities have begun, including Winter Wonderland at The Beach, which opens on Nov. 17 along Myrtle Beach's downtown oceanfront. The free holiday light display runs nightly along the Myrtle Beach Boardwalk from Plyler Park to the Second Ave Pier. Santa Claus will be in town for photos on Saturdays from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at Ninth Avenue North and the nearby Family Fun Zone is a great place to take the kids with wristbands only $5. Learn more at WinterWonderlandAtTheBeach.com for the full schedule of holiday-inspired events.

Regardless of your interest, the Myrtle Beach area has something for everyone. Enjoy your stay with us and have a wonderful time at the Myrtle Beach Invitational.

Sincerely,

Karen Riordan

President & CEO

Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce and Convention and visitors Bureau
